

Community Services

|   |  |  |
|---|--|--|
| Alpha Center*  | 432-6902  | Provides prevention programs that assist with the following situations: alcohol, tobacco and other drug education services, self-awareness programs, anger management, peer mediation, violence prevention, and safety awareness.  |
| Alston Wilkes Society*   | 773-7334www.alstonwilkessociety.org                | Rebuilds lives for a safer community—working with offenders, former offenders, and homeless individuals.   |
| American Red Cross, KC Service Center Of The Central SC Chapter* | 432-3383www.centralscredcross.org                    | Helps prevent, prepare for, and respond to emergencies.  |
| Camden-K.C. Rescue Squad*  | 425-6040  | Provides the following emergency services to the community: water rescue and recovery, high level, confined space, and lost person rescues.  |
| Camp Sun Fun*  | 425-6010  | The K. C. Recreation Department provides a summer camp that includes social, recreational, and educational activities for physically and mentally disabled children living in Kershaw County   |
| Christian Community Ministries (CCM)                             | 432-1431  | Our United Way partners with Christian Community Ministries in providing the LIFT program. LIFT is a mentoring program for families designed to assist them in becoming self-sufficient and independent.   |
| Community Medical Clinic Of K. C.*                               | 713-0806www.cmcofkc.org  | A 501 c-3 non-profit authorized charitable organization. We are a family practice medical clinic that provides healthcare to the uninsured residents of Kershaw County.  |
| Emergency Food and Shelter Program (EFSP)                        | 432-0951  | The United Way of Kershaw County and other community service providers serve on the EFSP local board, administer the federal funds allocated to our community and provide services that address the emergency food and shelter needs our county.   |
| Family Service Center *  | 800-223-9213 / 425-5973www.familyservicecenter.com | Consumer Credit Counseling provides personal financial counseling, debt management, and assessment for individuals and families. This community based office is dedicated to helping people use credit wisely and learn how to better budget their money.  |
| Food for the Soul  | 432-0951www.foodforthesoulkc.org                      | Food for the Soul,(FtS) a newly formed non-profit organization has embraced the same goal as the UWKC - ending hunger and homelessness in Kershaw County. FtS has developed a partnership with Mt. Moriah Baptist Church to provide meals for the homeless and is planning an emergency shelter in the not too distant future. |
| Girl Scouts Of The Mountains To The Midlands*                    | 800-849-4475www.gssc-mm.org                                    | provides informal educational programs for girls ages 5-17 in troop/group settings designed to help girls develop self-potential, relate to others, learn values, and contribute to society  |
| IMPACT Kershaw County  |  | IMPACT Kershaw County stands for Individuals Making Prevention a Commitment Together. IMPACT is an informal alliance of Community Service Providers and community leaders that has a goal of implementing joint projects that make a difference in our community for good.   |
| Indian Waters Council, Boy Scouts of America*                    | 750-9868www.indianwaters.org                              | The Indian Waters Council is a family oriented youth program for boys grades 1-12 and girls grades 9-12 that teaches values, life skills, career education, self-respect, self-esteem, and outdoor education.  |
| K. C. Board Of Disabilities*                                     | 432-4841  | The Kershaw County Board of Disabilities offers a wide array of services to families and individuals with disabilities. They provide numerous services including the following: service coordination, early intervention, job coaching, job skills training, respite care, and residential services.                           |
| K. C. Council On Aging*  | 432-8173  | The K. C. Council on Aging provides individuals 60+ with programs and services that allow them to remain independent. Services include onsite activities and congregate meals in Camden and Bethune, homemaker/housekeeping, home delivered meals, transportation, and respite care.   |
| K. C. Foster And Adoptive Care Program*                          | 408-0686  | Provides training and support for foster and adoptive parents in Kershaw County.   |
| K. C. Housing Partnership  | 432-0951www.uwkc.net  | The KC Housing Partnership is a collaborative that joins housing service providers together to share information and to develop goals and strategies that address the housing needs of our community. The Housing Partnership focuses on homeless housing, home repairs and affordable housing.                                |
| K. C. School District  | 432-8416www.kershaw.k12.sc.us                            | The United Way of KC partners with the school district in securing mentors, collecting school supplies the support the needy and supporting summer educational and recreational programs. Many of our Partner Agencies provide services and programs in the schools.   |

|   |   |  |
|---|---|--|
|   |   |  |
| K. C. Literacy Association*                      | 432-5770   | The Literacy Association teaches people who are functionally illiterate and those learning English as a second language to read. The tutoring services can be conducted one-on-one or in small groups.   |
| K. C. Teen Health Promotion Coalition*           | 425-1892   | The Teen Health Promotion Coalition works to reduce risky teen youth behaviors, especially those related to teen sexuality. It also provides several programs to promote health and wellness for young people.   |
| Mental Health America Of K. C.*                  | 432-7955   | The Mental Health Association works closely with the Mental Health Clinic to promote mental health through advocacy, indirect and direct financial and material assistance, education, and support services for the people of Kershaw County.  |
|   |   |  |
| Midlands Area Consortium for the Homeless (MACH) | 432-0951www.midlandshomeless.com | The United Way of KC (UWKC) and the Kershaw County Housing Partnership are members of the 14 county consortium that gives our community access to federal funding through HUD (the US Dept. of Housing and Urban Development), as well as, coordination of services provided to the homeless in our and neighboring communities.   |
| Midlands Crisis Chaplaincy*                      | 438-4343   | Midlands Crisis Chaplaincy provides pastoral care, emotional support, informal counseling and practical assistance to Police, Fire, and Emergency Medical Service personnel.   |
| Mt. Pisgah/Buffalo Rescue Squad*                 | 475-6321   | The Mt. Pisgah Buffalo Rescue Squad offers emergency aid to the sick and injured in the rural northern portion of Kershaw County. It also transports bedridden patients to hospitals and doctor's visits.  |
| New Day on Mill                                  | 432-5456www.uwkc.net                         | New Day on Mill is a program of the UWKC that serves as a Transitional Homeless Shelter for families. The 5 cottages on Mill Street in Camden provide shelter and services to equip homeless families with the skills and resources needed to become self sufficient and secure permanent housing.   |
| School Tools                                     | 432-0951   | The UWKC in partnership with the KC School District, raises funds, collects and distributes school supplies to needy children in Kindergarten through 9 th grade. The fund raising and collection of supplies is the role of UWKC while the school district provides the supply needs list and distributes the supplies through school counselors and teachers. |
| Sister Care*                                     | 713-0010www.sistercare.com             | Sistercare is a program of services for battered women and their children. Sistercare's services include: Children's Services, Community Counseling Services, Community Education and Awareness, Court Advocacy, Emergency Shelters, Service Telephone Line, Shelter Follow-Up Program, Transitional Housing, Hispanic Outreach Services                                   |
| Summer Food Program                              | 432-0951www.uwkc.net                         | The UWKC in partnership with SC Dept. of Social Services (DSS) and the KC School District provides breakfast and lunch to local summer programs that provide educational and/or recreational programs to youth.  |
| Target Distribution Center                       | 432-0951   | The UWKC in partnership with Target Distribution Center collects and distributes donated goods from the distribution center to local non-profit organizations.   |
|   |   |  |
| The Family Resource Center*                      | 425-4357   | The Family Resource Center offers support services to victims of sexual assault and their families. They also provide community education programs about sexual assault to help reduce the risk of rape and create support and understanding within the community.   |